School District of New Berlin to Showcase, Recognize Arts Program at First-Ever Student Art Gallery Night on Nov. 14

New Berlin, Wis. –The School District of New Berlin will showcase more than 70 pieces of student artwork at its first-ever Student Art Gallery Night to be held from 5-6:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14, in District Office, 4333 S. Sunnyslope Rd.

Students from across the district will have their art on display for friends, family members, school staff, district personnel and School Board members in various hallways and conference rooms throughout District Office. The artwork will remain on display through the school year.

Several pieces of art will be available through a silent auction with proceeds going to the district's arts program through the New Berlin Education Foundation, Inc. The initial bid for available pieces will be $25. Additionally, guests will be entertained by a student string quartet.

"The School District of New Berlin is highly regarded for its academic and athletic prominence, but our fine arts programs are among the best in the area as well," said Roger Dickson, Chief Finance and Operations Officer. "The Art Gallery Night is one small way to recognize the immensely talented students and their artistic abilities that this district and community are fortunate to have."

School Board members and district officials will recognize the talented artists and their families at approximately 6:10 p.m.

Because of capacity limits, the event is not open to the public, but media are invited to provide coverage of the event or use it to provide a more comprehensive look at the district's fine arts programs.

Please note, the Board of Education's regularly scheduled board meeting will take place immediately following the art event at 6:30 p.m. in the New Berlin Eisenhower learning commons.

Media should address questions to David Cotey, coordinator of communications, at david.cotey@nbexcellence.org or (262) 789-6225.
