

Eisenhower's Drew Named to All Star Team

April 22, 2009

Congratulations to Senior Patrick Drew. Drew was nominated by Coach Schiedegger and selected by the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association to represent Eisenhower in the Wisconsin State All-Star Basketball Game. The game will be held in Madison on Saturday June 20th 2009.

Drew was the Lions leading scorer with 274 points during the 08-09 season with a 12 point average per game. He was selected First Team All Conference and a Division II South All Star. Drew has earned a 3 point average of 39/11 for 35% and made 77% of his free throws.

Tickets to the game are available for any donation to the MACC Fund. Anyone wishing to help Patrick raise money for the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer) can send a check to the Eisenhower office by Monday, April 27. All donations are tax deductible. Please make your checks payable to WBCA/MACC Fund.
