

PARENTS CONFIDENTIAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT

In order that the directors of the Scholarship Fund may more accurately evaluate the overall qualifications of an applicant, it is necessary to consider financial need in addition to the other information required. Consequently, you are required to furnish certain information regarding your financial status as part of this scholarship application. The Treasurer of the New Berlin Scholarship Fund will evaluate this information and communicate your need status to the full board of directors. (Your financial statements are not shared with the board members.)

The directors, in turn, agree to treat such information as confidential. If you wish to submit any additional information in support or clarification of the information requested you may attach a letter to this form.
