Girl Scouts isn't just for younger girls!

Learn to Lead like a Girl Scout

As a girl-led organization, YOU determine what you want to do.

You will:

- Grow your courage, confidence, and character
- Develop leadership skills
- Meet with other girls just like you

Try something new

Girl Scouts is equipped to help you learn skills and put them to use.

What do you want to do?

- Practice culinary skills
- Learn skin care techniques
- Take better photos
- Develop first-aid skills
- Discover the great outdoors
- Plan for your future or college
- Meet women business owners
- Go on field trips (Girl Scouts has access to lots of behind the scenes action)

Serve

Make a sustainable impact in your community and beyond—earn the Girl Scout Gold Award.

First you choose an issue to investigate, look into where to get support, and create a plan. Then you put that plan into action and make the world a better place.

Volunteer with Girl Scouts

You can earn community service hours by helping run activities at Girl Scouts:

- Events
(Position: Program Aide)
Opportunities all year long, you choose the place and time
- Summer Camp
(Position: Counselor-in-Training)
Summer only, you choose the camp and location

Travel

- Within the United States or to other countries—travel with us!
- If you sell cookies, it can help pay for your trip!
