WVTV My24 to Celebrate New Berlin Eisenhower, West Seniors on June 8

New Berlin, Wis. – The School District of New Berlin's Class of 2020 will be celebrated in a 30-minute program at 7 p.m. Monday, June 8, on local channel WVTV My24 as part of a series of senior class spotlights, courtesy of Concordia University, the series' sponsor.

Superintendent Joe Garza, Eisenhower principal Matt Buckley and West principal Michael Fesenmaier will be featured along with students from both schools. They provide a look at how COVID-19 has affected this year's seniors, how they've adapted to the adverse circumstances resulting from the pandemic, and the collective memories that the Class of 2020 shares as students reflect on their time in the district.

"The Class of 2020 might be remembered as the class that didn't get to finish its final year because of a pandemic, but they should be remembered for so much more," Superintendent Garza said. "We're excited to partner with Concordia University and WVTV My24 and grateful to have the opportunity to celebrate the class in this special way. We try to honor our seniors every year, and while this year's celebrations might look and feel different, they are no less meaningful or thoughtful."

The SDNB will share a link to the video on Facebook, Twitter and its website after it airs on My24.
