

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Professional Learning in the School District of New Berlin is a process that facilitates the continuing education of teachers, administrators, and others.

Quality professional learning for teachers recognizes they are central to student learning, and that all members of the school community participate in the learning process. School District of New Berlin professional learning shall reflect the most current available research and the best practices in teaching as well as the goals, projects, and initiatives of the district.

Adopted: 3/25/91

Revised: 10/10/11

6/24/13