

NEW RELEASE

June 16, 2016

For Immediate Release

Joe Garza Joins LindenGrove Board of Directors

LindenGrove recently announced the election of Joe Garza to its Board of Directors. Garza is the Superintendent at the School District of New Berlin.

“LindenGrove and the School District of New Berlin have worked collaboratively over the years in a variety of ways, including the development of a CNA training program,” said Linda Joel, President and CEO of LindenGrove. “This is the natural next step as we continue to build upon that collaboration.

“Joe is a very dynamic, partnership-orientated leader and I look forward to the ideas he will bring to our organization,” she added.

With his election, Garza will serve a three-year term on the nine-person board.

LindenGrove is a nonprofit senior living and rehabilitation services organization with campuses in Menomonee Falls, Mukwonago, New Berlin and Waukesha.

About LindenGrove

LindenGrove is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of older adults. With campuses in Menomonee Falls, Mukwonago, New Berlin and Waukesha, LindenGrove offers short-term rehabilitation, assisted living, memory care and skilled nursing. As one of the area’s largest nonprofit senior living organization in the region, LindenGrove employs approximately 1,000 people in southeast Wisconsin. Learn more about LindenGrove at lindengrove.org

For more information:

Lucas Lauderback

Corporate Communications & Marketing Manager

LindenGrove

Phone: 262-797-4600

Email: lucas.lauderback@lindengrove.org