Picture Make-Up Day

Thursday, Oct. 19, is our picture make-up day for any students who missed the original picture days in August as well as for students who would like their picture retaken.

If your child did not get their picture taken, it will be done during the school day. School and Sport Pics will be sending home order cards with students that are photographed so you can order photos online.

If you were unhappy with your child's picture and would like it retaken, please be sure to send the purchased package back to school with your student and remind them to give it to their teacher. If you did not purchase a package email your child's teacher and let them know you want them to get a retake.

Parent University: Integrating Compassion into Challenging Emotions

Oct. 17, 6-7 p.m. virtual presentation via Zoom

Parenting with calm compassion when emotions are rising is challenging, to say the least.

You take great care with managing your children's needs, but do you afford yourself the same care you offer others when YOU are struggling?

Join us to learn evidence and research-based skills that enhance the ability to move forward skillfully under stress through resilience and endurance training! Register today! <https://forms.gle/LZCJ3yHykAvy7hCLA>

Title: Priming the Brain for Reading

Where: Elementary School Libraries

When: Oct. 19, 6 p.m.

Session Description:

We are very excited to be hosting our second Literacy Parent University on Oct. 19, at 6 p.m. Please feel free to join us in any of our elementary school libraries.

This month's title is Priming the Brain for Reading, it will dig into phonological awareness. Come learn what it is and how you can engage your child in simple tasks to build this critical skill.

To help us plan accordingly please RSVP using this link.
