

New Berlin Eisenhower, West Excel in Scholastic Art Awards

Artwork is on display at Milwaukee Art Museum through March 22

New Berlin, Wis. – School District of New Berlin students won regional Scholastic Art Awards for 55 works of art, and 11 art pieces will advance for possible national recognition.

New Berlin Eisenhower students won 7 Gold Key Awards, 8 Silver Key Awards and 23 Honorable Mention Awards. New Berlin West students won 4 Gold Key Awards, 1 Silver Key Award and 12 Honorable Mention Awards.

See photo galleries of the winning artwork on the schools' websites: West Art and Eisenhower Art and on the district's Facebook page.

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards (www.artandwriting.org) have been recognizing student talent annually since 1923. This year, more than 375 Wisconsin students in grades 7-12 were awarded Gold and Silver Keys and will have their artwork displayed at the Milwaukee Art Museum through March 22, with an awards ceremony on Feb. 14. Gold Key Award winners will be considered for National Gold or Silver Key Awards.

Congratulations to all of our middle and high school students who won Scholastic Art Awards! Thanks to our art teachers – Heidi Herbst and Lynne Trinkner at Eisenhower and Nicole DeKoch and Nicole Pollack at West.
